Empathy Map

Create an empathy map to understand your customer/user from four perspectives - what they Say, Think, Do, and Feel - in relation to the problem your project addresses. This helps the team build a customer-centric solution.

SAYS		THINKS
"I need to process credit card applications quickly." "The approval process should be fair and accurate." "I want to reduce manual verification time."		"Can this applicant repay the credit on time?" "Does the applicant have a good credit history?" "Will this decision increase financial risk for the bank?"
	PERSONA NAME
	Bank Credit Analyst
DOES		FEELS
- Reviews applicant information. - Checks income, employment, and credit history. - Makes approval or rejection decisions based on available data.		- Wants confidence in every approval decision. - Feels pressure to process many applications quickly. - Needs an accurate system that minimizes human errors.
